

KARSTEN STIER

Karsten was born in Germany in 1955 and has lived in Australia since he was a toddler. He has been living and painting in Port Fairy on the south west coast of Victoria for the past ten years. His painting technique has developed to a high standard and is often mistaken for airbrushing. Themes in his work are often based on nature and coastal life and the landscape that surrounds him. His work is held in several collections in Australia, Europe and Japan.
